

Halloween rhymes

Words rhyme when they have the same ending sounds. Which words rhyme in these poems?

October poem

October is the month when the smallest breeze
Gives us a shower of autumn leaves.
Bonfires and pumpkins, leaves sailing down -
October is red and golden and brown.

Halloween poem

The witch swooped down on her broom Then a mummy stumbled out of his tomb
Scared awake by a plague of rats
The witch rescued her terrified cats.
