12/4: Peter (and co)'s epistles (2 Pet. 1, James 2)

Some discussion questions:

1. What exactly are the arguments in these passages about? Belief? Practice? How are those two related?
2. How does this account of Peter and James's views compare with the account in Acts (or even Galatians)?
3. What does this passage tell us about the structure of the early church?
4. What can we tell about the character Peter/James from this story?
5. What is the place of the law in the church today?
